OVERVIEW

The only televised awards ceremony to exclusively honor actors, the SAG Awards® presents 13 awards in TV and film. Voted on by SAG-AFTRA's robust and diverse membership of 130,000+ performers – the SAG Awards has the largest voting body on the awards circuit. Beloved for its style, simplicity, and genuine warmth, the show has become an industry favorite and one of awards season's most prized honors since its debut in 1995.

The SAG Awards® focuses on both individual and ensemble performances of a drama series, comedy series, and motion picture. These honors are fundamental to the spirit of the Screen Actors Guild Awards because they recognize that acting is a collaborative art. These guidelines are intended to preserve the integrity, prestige, and honor of the SAG Awards® and to assist the media and general public in maintaining accuracy.

NOMENCLATURE

SOCIAL MEDIA

The official hashtag is #SAG Awards and the official handle is @SAG Awards.

STATUETTE

The name of the statuette presented to the honorees is The Actor®.

NAME

The name of the event is the 29th Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards®. The only acceptable nicknames are the Screen Actors Guild Awards® or the SAG Awards®. It is NEVER acceptable nor correct to call it the SAGs or the awards-giving body only as SAG.

LIFE ACHIEVEMENT

SAG-AFTRA'S highest accolade is the Life Achievement Award for career advancement and humanitarian accomplishment. It is NOT called the Lifetime Achievement Award.

NOTE

Screen Actors Guild Awards®, SAG Awards®, The Actor® name and statuette, and the phrase "I Am an Actor™" are legally protected against unauthorized use and infringements. Further legal and usage information is available at <http://sagawards.org/mediapr/media-guidelines>

EDITORIAL USE

New and editorial uses of Screen Actors Guild Awards® symbols and SAG-AFTRA marks in stories and articles appearing in newspapers, periodicals, digital publications, television, or mini-motion pictures are subject to the following conditions:

- All published representations of The Actor® statuette, including photographs, drawing, and other likenesses, must include the notice of copyright, "©1995 SAG-AFTRA".
- Neither the marks "Screen Actors Guild Award", "SAG Awards", nor "The Actor" may be used to describe awards given by organizations other than SAG-AFTRA or legacy Screen Actors Guild.

GENERAL ADVERTISING

No personal appearance, picture, or drawing of a recipient of a Screen Actors Guild Award® with a Screen Actors Guild Award symbol or SAG-AFTRA mark may be used in any advertising or promotional materials of any sort without the written consent of the SAG Awards or SAG-AFTRA, except as permitted by these Regulations.

ONLINE & VIDEO ADVERTISING

No Screen Actors Guild Award symbol or any photograph, picture, or drawing that includes a reproduction of The Actor statuette or SAG-AFTRA mark may be used in any advertising appearing in newspapers, periodicals, billboards, posters or in any other medium, specifically including electronic media, without the written consent of the SAG Awards or SAG-AFTRA, except as permitted by these Regulations.

NOMINEE & WINNER ADVERTISING

- Performers who have received or been nominated for The Actor® may be advertised in print, electronic media and theatrical trailers subject to the following conditions:
 - Performers who have received The Actor may use a depiction of The Actor statuette provided:
 - It appears no more than once in each advertisement.
 - The size of the depiction does not exceed ten percent of the total advertising space or viewing area.
 - The SAG Awards approves the quality of the representation.
 - The copyright, trademark, and service mark notice, "©1995 SAG-AFTRA", accompanies the depiction in legible form, and the achievement for which the award was conferred is specified.
- Performers who have received The Actor may use the words "Winner Screen Actors Guild Awards®" or "Winner of The Actor®" or similar descriptions incorporating SAG-AFTRA marks provided:
 - Any visual display of SAG-AFTRA's marks is accompanied by an indication of the achievement.
 - SAG-AFTRA's marks appear with appropriate notice of trademarks or registration as set forth in these Regulations.

NOMINEE & WINNER ADVERTISING CONT.

- Performers nominated for The Actor may use the words "SAG Awards® Nominee" , "Screen Actors Guild Award® Nominee" , or similar descriptions incorporating SAG-AFTRA marks and may use a depiction of The Actor statuette provided that:
 - It appears only during the period between the performer's nomination and the presentation of that year's Screen Actors Guild Awards, and no more than once in each advertisement.
 - The size of the depiction does not exceed ten percent of the total advertising space or viewing area.
 - SAG-AFTRA approves the quality of the representation.
 - The copyright, trademark, and service mark notice, "©1995 SAG-AFTRA", accompanies the depiction in legible form.
 - The word "Nomination(s)" or the words "Nominated for" appear in the same size, style, and color of type as the marks "SAG Awards" or "Screen Actors Guild Awards".
 - The word "winner" is not used to describe the receiving of a nomination.
 - The achievement for which the nomination has been received is specified.

- No performing achievement that has not received The Actor may be advertised or exploited in a manner which will mislead the public or imply that the performer has received such an award. During the first quarter of the Screen Actors Guild Award year, no individual may be advertised as a "SAG Award® Nominee" or "Screen Actors Guild Awards® Nominee" except in advertising for the film in which the performance received the nomination.
- The word "Nomination(s)" or the words "Nominated for" appear in the same size, style, and color of type as the marks "SAG Awards" or "Screen Actors Guild Awards".
- The word "winner" is not used to describe the receiving of a nomination.
- The achievement for which the nomination has been received is specified.
- No performing achievement that has not received The Actor may be advertised or exploited in a manner which will mislead the public or imply that the performer has received such an award. During the first quarter of the Screen Actors Guild Award year, no individual may be advertised as a "SAG Award® Nominee" or "Screen Actors Guild Awards® Nominee" except in advertising for the film in which the performance received the nomination.

NOMINEE & WINNER ADVERTISING CONT.

- The words "SAG Awards® Winner" , "Screen Actors Guild Award® Winner" , "The Actor® Nominee" , and "SAG Award® Nominee" , or similar descriptions incorporating SAG-AFTRA marks may appear on DVDs and URL packaging of any motion picture/television project that has a performer in the cast/ensemble who has received The Actor statuette or nomination under the following conditions:
 - The cast/ensemble has a performer who received The Actor® or a SAG Award® nomination.
 - The award year for which the performer won or was nominated is indicated.
 - The terms, "Nomination(s)", "Nominee(s)", and/or "Nominated for" appear in the same size, style, and color of type as the marks "The Actor" and/or "Screen Actors Guild Award".
 - SAG-AFTRA marks appear with appropriate notice of trademark and service mark ownership and/or registration as set forth in these Regulations, and credit is given to SAG-AFTRA as the owner of these marks as follows:
 - "Screen Actors Guild Awards® is the registered trademark and service mark of SAG-AFTRA".
 - "The Actor® is the registered trademark and service mark of SAG-AFTRA".
