

Gabrielle Carteris
SAG-AFTRA President

Gabrielle Carteris is an actor and labor union leader. She has served as SAG-AFTRA president since April 2016 and was previously executive vice president from 2013-2016. She is the chair of the National TV/Theatrical Contracts Negotiating Committee and leads the President's Task Force on Education, Outreach and Engagement. Carteris also serves as a vice president on the AFL-CIO's executive council and on the International Federation of Actors' executive council.

Carteris became a household name playing Andrea Zuckerman on Beverly Hills, 90210 and recently starred in BH90210, a revival of the iconic show. Her extensive resume includes work in television, film and the stage, with recent credits including a recurring role on Code Black and guest-starring roles on Criminal Minds, Make It or Break It, The Event, Longmire and The Middle. As a producer, Carteris created Lifestories, a series of specials, and Gabrielle, a talk show that she also hosted.

Carteris is a fierce advocate for diversity, equity and inclusion as a path for systemic societal change. She leads the union's anti-harassment efforts and is spearheading its stunt equity initiative to ensure diversity and inclusion in the stunt profession. As a founding ambassador of ReFrame, an initiative of Women In Film and Sundance Institute to further gender parity in the media industry and a delegate to the Industrywide Commission on Sexual Harassment and Advancing Equality in the Workplace, Carteris is helping to ensure a safer and more equitable entertainment and media industry.
